

Corpus Christi College - Teaching Assistants

[Maximum of 30 hours per course; Standard Assignment: 15 hours per course]

Corpus Christi College invites applications for Teaching Assistants in the following areas:

Philosophy	Business	Political Science	English
Sociology	Film Studies	Psychology	Religious Studies
Economics	History	Classics

Teaching Assistants will report directly to the faculty member concerned. With the approval of the Dean (or her/his delegate), assignments for Teaching Assistants may include some or all of the following responsibilities:

- a. Grading of papers and examinations
- b. Guest class lectures/instruction
- c. Leading tutorial classes
- d. Curriculum development, preparation or research relevant to the particular class and supporting the work of the faculty member / lecturer.
- e. Support (not replace) the instructor in invigilating examinations and tests

Preference will be given to applicants with a relevant doctoral degree or be enrolled in a relevant doctoral program. However, applicants with a Master's degree or enrolled in a relevant Master's program are welcome to apply.

The Community of St. Mark's at UBC is comprised of St. Mark's College, St. Mark's Parish and Corpus Christi College. Together we provide a centre of academic excellence for Catholic higher education in British Columbia. The Colleges are committed to promoting an authentic Christian humanism, animated by a joy of searching for, discovering, and communicating truth in every field of knowledge. Corpus Christi College offers the best start for undergraduate students embarking on their university experience, fortified by an education offering the richness of the Liberal Arts. We prepare graduates to take on the intellectual, professional, and social challenges of our times.

Open to students of all backgrounds, the College offers a range of courses in the liberal arts and sciences and business studies and its growing undergraduate Associate of Arts degree program, emphasizing the Catholic intellectual tradition.

Applications must include the names of 2 references who will be willing to provide letters of reference, a cover letter, and a curriculum vitae. All applications should be sent to hr@corpuschristi.ca clearly indicating their area of interest.