

UBC AMS Representative for St. Mark's College and Corpus Christi College

Overview

As all students of Corpus Christi College and St. Mark's College (CCC/SMC) at the University of British Columbia (UBC) are members of the UBC Alma Mater Society (AMS), students have a voice on the AMS Council through a representative who sits on the Affiliate Colleges Committee (ACC). CCC/SMC requires a student who will represent the best interests of the student body on the ACC and ultimately on the AMS Council. If selected, this representative may also serve as the ACC member on the UBC AMS Council.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Attend monthly Affiliate Colleges Committee meetings with representatives from Regent College, the Vancouver School of Theology and an another AMS Council member
- Provide a brief written report following each meeting
- Meet with a college staff member (Campus Minister), as needed, for consultation
- If selected to represent the ACC on the AMS Council, you must attend bi-weekly council meetings (usually every other Wednesday) at the Nest building at 6pm
- Participate in any council member training or orientation
